PRESIDENT'S FOREWORD

On behalf of the Association of Landscape Contractors of Ireland it gives me great pleasure to present you with our latest diary and yearbook.

Contained within its pages is a wealth of knowledge, contacts and useful land based information. It's the most comprehensive compilation available and we want you to get the most from it. Take a moment and leaf through its pages and familiarise yourself with its layout and you'll get so much more from it throughout the year.

ALCI is the primary land based body throughout Ireland. Our membership and our voice is growing yearly. Our contractors who once worked locally are now working nationally or even internationally, creating landscapes that are recognised for their excellence.

We move with the times, streamlining our businesses and developing new techniques and staff for the future. Landscaping has always been about the creation and management of growth, so when we complete a scheme that is not the end of it but indeed the starting phase of its life - long term this is what our industry and association is all about.

Thank you for reading through our yearbook and we trust it will be a useful tool in your business.

Gareth Dalzell

CONDITIONS OF MEMBERSHIP

THE ASSOCIATION

The ALCI was founded in 1971 in response to the obvious need for a representative voice for the developing landscape industry. The ALCI, through its members, is committed to the development of the landscape industry. This is brought about by ensuring quality of workmanship, reliability and an emphasis on training. This is undertaken to ensure our service matches the requirements of our customers.

AIMS AND OBJECTIVES

1. To improve and maintain the standing of the landscape industry through the strength of corporate representation
2. To formulate and recommend contract procedures for the guidance and common use of all members
3. To promote high standards of quality and workmanship
4. To encourage regular meetings at both regional and national level
5. To raise the efficiency and profitability of the industry by encouraging progressive methods of management
6. To promote and protect the interests of the members of the Association and generally to do all such things as may be conducive or incidental to the general welfare of the ALCI and its members

ALCI MEMBERSHIP CATEGORIES

Full membership shall be open to landscaping firms or persons operating in Northern Ireland and/or the Republic of Ireland who meet the following requirements:

- a. that they operate a full-time landscaping or allied contracting service;
- b. that they have a permanent, identifiable business address;
- c. that, in relation to clause (a), they have been in business at least two years;
- d. that applicants' income or the income of a group or set of businesses of which they are part, must comprise of a minimum of 80% derived from landscaping or amenity horticulture activities.
- e. that they supply details of 4 satisfactorily completed contracts, at least one of which will have been completed in the twelve months preceding date of application;
- f. that they supply at least two trade references;
- g. that such applicant is proposed and seconded by two full members of the Association and accepted by a two-thirds majority of members present at the relevant regional meeting, voting in private. The Association shall not disclose reasons for its decisions.

Probationary Membership is open to landscapers who have been in business less than two years or experienced contractors who, for whatever reason, have not yet applied for full membership. Probationary members have not had their quality standards assessed and are therefore not entitled to claim that they are members of the ALCI.

Trade Membership of the Association shall be open to a company (or person) who supplies material, equipment or a service to the landscape industry and particularly to members of the Association.

Correspondence Membership shall be open to a college, public or local authority, professional body or trade association, or individual involved in or with the landscape industry who is not eligible for any other category of membership.

CODE OF CONDUCT FOR ALCI (FULL MEMBERS)

1. The underlying principle is that public and professional confidence in the service provided by members of the Association shall be enhanced and that no member shall conduct himself in such a way that the member, the Association, or the industry is brought into disrepute.
2. A member shall be held responsible for the acts of his staff and sub-contractors, in so far as they relate to the scope of the Association.
3. Every member shall uphold the standing of the industry and the Association's members shall strive to add to the increasing knowledge of the landscaping industry and related topics to the benefit of the Association.
4. A member shall perform only those services which are within the member's competence. Staff shall be trained and well supervised to ensure all contracts are undertaken in accordance with the specification and good practice.
5. Adequate insurance cover shall be maintained for all normal risks affecting the client, the public and the member's employees.
6. Any member having evidence of the violation of the code by another member may present this information by means of a letter marked "Confidential" to the secretary.

If there shall be any ambiguity or difference of opinion resulting in a dispute with a client, the member shall try to reach agreement.

If this is not possible, the member agrees to accept the findings of a mediator approved by the Association provided the client does likewise.

CONTINUED MEMBERSHIP OF THE ASSOCIATION SHALL BE CONDITIONAL UPON

1. The maintenance of satisfactory standards of performance which may be subject to inspection at any time, by representatives appointed by the ALCI.
2. The regular payment of annual subscription.
